Based in Bishops Stortford (Hertfordshire) Ben won his first Championship team medal in 2011 at the European Championships in Madrid. A year later saw him put Great Britain back on the map as world leaders when alongside his team mates he won Team Gold at the London 2012 Olympic Games with the homebred stallion Tripple X III. 2013 saw Ben on the European Championship Team once again, this time in Herning, Denmark with Cella where they secured both Team Gold and Individual Silver.

Learning to ride at the age of just eight years old he regularly competed in pony classes from a young age. Deciding that he wanted to follow a career within the sport he started training with former British Team riders Ted & Liz Edgar in Warwickshire before heading for Switzerland where he spent a couple of years with Beat Mandli.

As a Young Rider he enjoyed considerable success, culminating with his inclusion on the Gold Medal winning team at the 2004 Young Rider European Team Championships. On a senior level his name was put firmly on the map when he won the Hickstead Derby in 2005. It wasn't long before Ben started to make appearances on senior British Nations Cup Teams and his first Championship appearance came in 2011 at the European Championships where he won Team Bronze.

In 2012 he was awarded an MBE (Member of the Order of the British Empire).
