Scott Brash first set eyes and sat on Sanctos in December 2011 when he had been flown out to Germany with David Broome to try out a horse that both David and his eventual new owners felt had the potential to be an Olympian.

From the minute Scott sat on Sanctos he knew their relationship would be a special one and their immediate understanding of each other quickly flourished into the successful partnership that they now have. Arriving in London during The London International Horse Show at Olympia, Sanctos then headed to his new home in Scotland where he spent some time getting used to Scott and his new surroundings. January 2012 saw them head out to Wellington, Florida where they had the opportunity to spend time developing their partnership before taking part in their first affiliated competition as a combination on the 23rd February. Just weeks later, the combination recorded a superb win in the Wellington FEI World Cup Grand Prix, a win that cemented their partnership going forward.

May 2012 saw Scott and Sanctos make their debut at Top Level Nations Cup competition in Rome shortly followed by an appearance in Rotterdam. In July the combination were announced as team members selected to represent Great Britain at the London 2012 Olympic Games.
