Highly respected within the sport as an outstanding producer of young horses that have then gone on to International success. Phillip's talent has become known to an even wider audience in recent years with him continuing their education process through from county shows to the international stage.

2012 saw Phillip retain the prestigious summer season International Stairway title in addition to numerous successes both home and abroad. Philip's passion for the sport is far more reaching than just competing and winning, it is very much driven on the satisfaction he gets from producing a horse and nurturing it's talent.

Did you know: If Phillip could will himself to spontaneously combust, he would do it every time a film crew approach him for an interview!
