Nick Skelton

Fact file:

- D.O.B: 30/12/57
- Lives: Alcester, Warwickshire
- Ranking: For Team GBR Rankings click here
For Rolex Rankings click here
- Family: Son – Dan & Harry (both in the Racing industry)
- Career Summary: With a career that has spanned four decades Nick has been one of the major front runners of the sport at both a national and international level with prize winnings that total almost £6m. A near-fatal riding injury saw Nick forced to retire in 2001, but he astounded everyone by making an amazing recovery and return to the sport in which he has topped almost ever since. Nick holds the British record for showjumping the highest fence when he cleared over 7'7" on Lastic in 1979, he has competed in six Olympic Games, won five World Championship medals and nine European Championship medals with the most recent being in Madrid 2011 where he brought home both a Team and Individual bronze.
- Did you know: Nick was born just one mile from where the London 2012 torches were made!

Major Achievements:

- Total Medals: 15
- Total Nation Cups: 166
