In addition to being one of Great Britain's highest ranked riders and a well respected coach, Tim has also become a media 'face' for the sport.

A member of the 2008 Beijing Olympic team that represented Great Britain which saw them finish in 5th position, Tim has also represented Great Britain at both Senior European and World Championship level.

His success on the international stage has been considerable spanning national championship titles through to high profile Grand Prix wins. Late 2011 saw Tim sustain a fractured neck as the result of a fall, an injury which he fought back from with the determination everyone would expect of him to where he was back competing on teams by the summer of 2012.

Did you know? Tim is an avid Sheffield Wednesday FC Supporter
