What is this type of insurance?

This policy provides personal liability insurance for members of the British Showjumping Association, covering legal liability for accidental injury to a third party or damage to third party property that occurs during the member's period of cover and arises in connection with their equine activities or use and/or ownership of any horse.

What is insured?

- ✓ The member's legal liability arising out of accidental bodily injury sustained by a third party or accidental damage to third party property, arising out of your equine activities as defined in the policy schedule.
- ✓ Defence costs as included within the limit of liability.
- ✓ Automatic Extensions (included as standard):
- ✓ Your insurance extends to provide cover for the following automatically:
 - ✓ abuse cover which you are legally obligated to pay as compensatory damages as a direct result of a claim.
 - ✓ for your legal liability for damages incurred outside of the territorial limits for a maximum of 90 days during the member's period of cover (excluding Russia, Belarus, Ukraine, the United States of America or Canada).
 - ✓ any authorised users who are using your horse with your permission while in your presence.
 - ✓ for cross liabilities in the case that there is more than one insured party.
 - ✓ for any horse groom undertaking grooming services while working for you and unmounted only. This extension does not apply to professional grooms.

Any person covered under the extensions must fulfil and be subject to all the Terms and Conditions, Limitations and Exclusions of the Master policy.

- ! We will not pay more than the sum(s) insured or limit(s) shown in your schedule or policy.
- ! You must permanently reside within Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands.

Where am I covered?

- ✓ You are only covered in those territories or countries which are specified in the schedule under the Geographical/Territorial Limits section.

What are my obligations?

- Maintain your British Showjumping Association membership.
- Take reasonable steps to maintain premises, stabling, fences, paddocks in a good state of repair.
- You must pay the excess as stated in the schedule.
- Wear approved and protective equipment during mounted activities.
- Notify SEIB Insurance Brokers Limited as soon as possible of any claim or circumstance that may give rise to a claim.
- Do not admit liability or settle claims without insurer's written consent.
- Any fraud, misstatement or concealment in relation to any matter affecting coverage, or in connection with a claim, will mean your cover is terminated and you will be unable to make a claim.

When and how to pay

- Payment for this insurance is included within your membership fee paid to the British Showjumping Association.

When does the cover start and end?

- Cover starts from the beginning of your membership of the British Showjumping Association and continues for a period of 12 months providing that you keep your membership in place. Otherwise this policy will be cancelled.

How do I cancel the contract?

- As this is a master policy, this insurance does not provide you with the statutory right to cancel within 14 days. If you cancel your membership of the British Showjumping Association or do not renew your membership, your insurance cover will cease from the time of such cancellation or non-renewal.
