

Privacy Policy

We at the British Showjumping Association ("BSJA"), ("we" or "our" or "us") want to make sure all the personal information we have collected about you, is safe and secure.

This Privacy Policy set outs our commitments to you, in compliance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (commonly known as the "UK GDPR"), the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and all other UK data protection laws and explains how we collect, store and use your personal information.

We have not appointed a Data Protection Officer to oversee our compliance with data protection laws as we are not required to do so, but our Data Protection Compliance Team has overall responsibility for data protection compliance in our organisation.

Contact details are set out in the "Contact us" section at the end of this Privacy Policy.

PRIVACY NOTICES

Collecting specific, relevant personal information is a necessary part of us being able to provide you with any services you may request from us or in providing services to our customers and members or just managing our relationship with you.

When we hold or use your personal information as a data controller (see below for a description of what this is) we will provide you with a Privacy Notice which sets out in detail what information we hold about you (such as your contact details, address, etc.), how your personal information may be used and the reasons for these uses, together with details of your rights.

Where we collect personal information from you directly, we will provide this Privacy Notice at the time we collect the personal information from you. Where we receive your personal information indirectly, we will provide this Privacy Notice when we first contact you, first pass the data to someone else or within a month, whichever is the earlier.

We will only provide this Privacy Notice to you once, generally at the start of our relationship with you. However, if the applicable Privacy Notice is updated substantially, then we may provide you with details of the updated version. You are encouraged to check back regularly for updates.

Copies of our current Privacy Notices can be found below:

Please note that it is possible for you to be covered by more than one Privacy Notice. For example, you may represent a member organisation who also serves as a volunteer on one of our governing committees. In this example both our Member Privacy Notice and our Volunteer Privacy Notice would apply to you.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DATA CONTROLLERS/PROCESSORS

A data controller is a person who controls how personal information is processed and used. A data processor is a person who processes and uses personal information in accordance with the instructions of a third party, i.e. the data controller.

This distinction is important. You have certain rights in relation to your personal information, for example the right to be provided with the personal information held about you and details of its use and the right to have certain of your personal information either erased or anonymised, commonly referred to as the right to be forgotten (see below to see what rights you have). These rights can generally only be exercised against a data controller of your information.

In most cases we will be a data controller of your personal information. In any case where we are not a data controller, this means that you cannot exercise these rights against us directly (i.e. where we only act as a data processor), but you can do so against the data controller (i.e. the person who controls how we process the personal information). In these cases, we will endeavour to inform you who is the data controller of your personal information so that you can direct any such requests to them.

Also, it is only a data controller that will provide you with a privacy notice about your personal information, so where we process your personal information as a data controller, we will provide you with one of the Privacy Notices referred to above. Where we process your personal information as a data processor for a third party, that third party should provide you with a privacy notice which will set out details regarding the processing of your personal information, which should also include the processing to be carried out by us on their behalf.

HOW DO WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We will use your personal information as described in the Privacy Notice(s) provided to you, but, for example, we may use your personal information to administer any account(s) you have with us or to send you information we think you might find useful, provided you have indicated that you are happy to be contacted for these purposes.

To see how we use your personal information, please see our current Privacy Notices, which can be accessed below:

WHO DO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH?

Details of how we disclose your personal information are set out in the relevant Privacy Notice(s) provided to you, but generally it is where we need to do so in order to run our organisation (e.g. where other people process information for us). In such circumstances, we will put in place arrangements to protect your personal information. Outside of that we do not disclose your personal information unless we are required to do so by law.

If we transfer personal information about you outside the UK or European Economic Area (EEA), we will let you know and ensure that all reasonable security measures are taken and that any third party processors will be required to process the information in accordance with information protection laws and we will notify you in the Privacy Notice(s) we provide to you if we are the information controller. Further details of who we share your personal information with is set out in the relevant Privacy Notice provided to you.

We do not sell, trade or rent your personal information to others.

HOW LONG DO WE HOLD ON TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Further details of how long we hold onto your personal information for are set out in the relevant Privacy Notice(s) provided to you, but we will only hold your information for as long as is necessary or where you ask us to delete records we may delete it earlier.

The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why it was collected. However, in some cases personal information may be retained on a long-term basis: for example, personal information that we need to retain for legal purposes will normally be retained for at least six years in accordance with usual commercial practice and regulatory requirements.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

Full details of your rights set out in the relevant Privacy Notice(s) provided to you, but you are entitled by law to ask for a copy of your personal information at any time. You are also entitled to ask us to correct, delete or update your personal information, to send your personal information to you or another organisation and to object to automated decision making. Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you also have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.

To exercise any of your rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contact Us" section below. You can also unsubscribe from any direct marketing as well as our monthly e-newsletter by clicking on the unsubscribe link in the marketing messages or e-newsletters we send to you.

You should note that some of your rights may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which apply to them and they may not also apply to personal information recorded and stored by us. However, your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at www.ico.org.uk. However, we are here to help and would encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first using the details set out in the "Contact Us" section below before you approach the ICO.

LINKING WITH THIRD PARTY SITES

Our Site may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of our commercial partners, other regional bodies, advertisers, volunteering platform and clubs. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own privacy policies and they will be a data controller of your personal information. We do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies and you should check these policies before you submit any personal information to these websites.

In addition, if you linked to <https://www.britishshowjumping.co.uk/> (our “Site”) from a third-party site, we cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of the owners or operators of that third-party site and recommend that you check the policy of that third party site and contact its owner or operator if you have any concerns or questions.

SECURITY

We employ a variety of technical and organisational measures to keep your personal information safe and to prevent unauthorised access to, or use, or disclosure of it. Unfortunately, no information transmission over the Internet is guaranteed 100% secure nor is any storage of information always 100% secure, but we do take all appropriate steps to protect the security of your personal information.

We take information and system security very seriously indeed with measures including:

- Full disk encryption for all laptops and desktops;
- Encryption of approved USB storage devices, and blocking of non-approved devices;
- Implementation of Microsoft best-practice for password controls and use of multi-factor authentication systems, with emphasis on controls over remote access;
- Multiple perimeter (including application layer) and desktop/laptop firewalls;
- Intrusion/breach detection and prevention systems;
- Multi-level and multi-vendor anti-malware systems (capable of detecting sophisticated threats, such as ransomware), covering the email/web gateways, servers, server applications (such as email), network and desktops/laptops;
- Regular reviews of log files generated by key security systems;
- Advanced Threat Protection for harmful links and attachments within emails;
- Use of Microsoft tools restricting access to data and limiting the ability of users to share data outside the organisation;
- Strong physical, environmental and perimeter controls;
- Regular and automated patching of all operating systems and third-party applications.

COOKIES

Certain parts of <https://www.britishshowjumping.co.uk/> (our “Site”) uses “cookies” to keep track of your visit and to help you navigate between sections. A cookie is a small data file that certain websites store on your computer’s hard-drive when you visit such websites. Cookies can contain information such as your user ID and the pages you have visited. The only personal information a cookie contains is information that you have personally supplied.

We use cookies on our Site to enable us to deliver content that is specific to your interests and gives us an idea of which parts of the Site you are visiting and to recognise you when you return to the Site. Reading cookies does not give us access to other information on your computer's hard-drive and our Site will not read cookies created by other websites that you have visited.

You may refuse to accept cookies by activating the setting on your browser which allows you to refuse the setting of cookies. If, however, you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of the Site. Unless you have adjusted your browser settings so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you access the Site.

Please note providers of third party content may also use cookies over which we have no control. For detailed information on the cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them see the table at the end of the Privacy Policy.

LOG FILES

In common with most websites, our Site logs various information about visitors, including internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, internet service provider (ISP) information, referring / exit pages and date / time stamp.

We may use this information to analyse trends, administer the Site, track your movement around the Site and gather broad demographic information.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

Any changes we may make to this Privacy Policy in the future will be posted on our Site and, where appropriate, notified to you by e-mail. When we change this Privacy Policy in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page.

Please check back frequently to see any updates or changes to this Privacy Policy and should you object to any alteration, please contact us as set out in the "Contact Us" section below.

CONTACT US

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please email dataprotection@britishshowjumping.co.uk or write to us at British Showjumping, Building 2020 Meriden Business Park, Copse Drive, Coventry, West Midlands, CV5 9RG.

Whilst this Privacy Policy sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>.
